

WHAT'S THIS? Well Informed Citizens from Milwaukee, WI, USA, have released their Swindlers and Thieves EP April 19, 2014. In contrast to their last long-player, Leaders of the Revolution, featuring contributions from over 15 different players, the new record explores the challenges of writing, recording, and performing as a trio. Influences of Dire Straits, Gary Clark Jr., Anders Osborne, and Grant Green can be heard. The album is released on Jack LeTourneau and Daniel Nathan's Citizen Recordings label. and is available to stream and download at wellinformedcitizens.com.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING:

"pretty prolific for a self-financed Milwaukee band"

- OnMilwaukee.com

"Southern rock smash-up, but Citizens handle the album's more straightforward, Stevie Ray Vaughn-style blues rock well"

- Milwaukee Journal-Sentinel

"stompingly libidinous '60s R&B/rock hybridism"

- Shepherd Express

"another fine release"

- Blues Rock Review

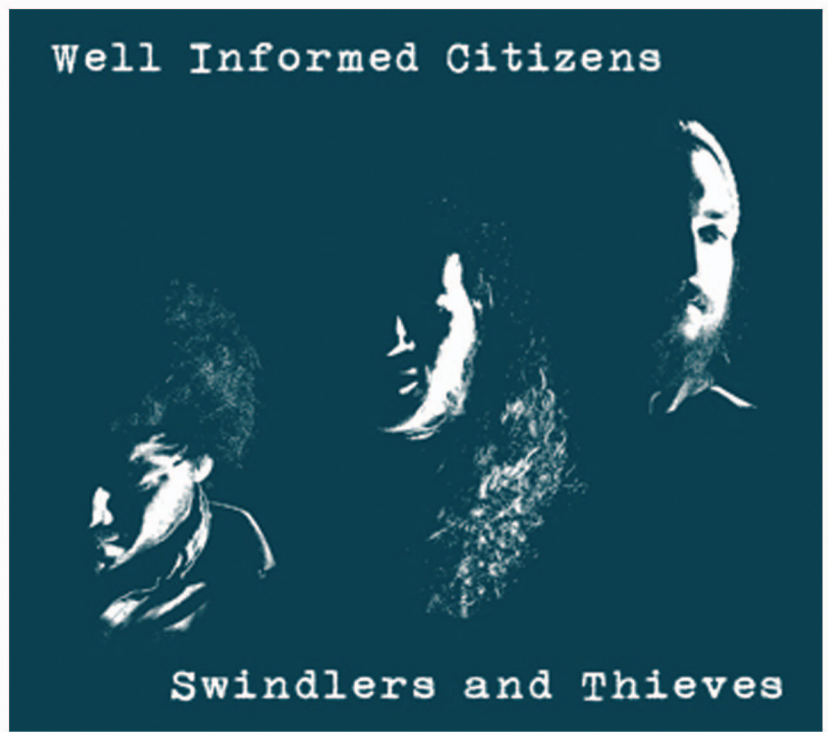

Citizen Recordings
2266 N Prospect Ave #336
Milwaukee, WI 53202
USA
www.citizenrecordings.com

CITIZEN RECORDINGS

Daniel Nathan
+1-414-313-1385
dan@danielnathan.com

Jack LeTourneau
+1-312-953-3860
jakletour@yahoo.com

WHY SHOULD ANYONE CARE? Their second album "Leaders of the Revolution," was released Sept 2013 and was nominated for several 2013 88.9 Radio Milwaukee's "Milwaukee Music Awards": Best Band, Best Album, and "Sweet Maria" for Best Song and Catchiest Song. The title track was featured as the theme for the WI MMA Today television show on WC-GV-TV (Channel 24 in Milwaukee).

In 2012, Well Informed Citizens were nominated for Best New Artist in the 32nd Annual Wisconsin Area Music Industry (WAMI) Awards, and were also nominated for several 88.9 Radio Milwaukee's "Milwaukee Music Awards": Best Band, Best Album, and "See You Falling" for Best Song and Catchiest Song.